Nestled on the banks of the Muskoka River, Inn at the Falls is perfectly situated in every way: In one of Ontario's most picturesque towns and at the centre of the world-renowned Muskoka region.

Historic. Charming. Picturesque. Inn at the Falls exudes a quiet village atmosphere. It is comprised of an impressive 1870's estate home and six neighbouring houses on a secluded cul-de-sac.

As a guest, you'll quickly discover that Inn at the Falls strikes just the right balance between traditional and modern. The property still retains many of its distinguishing features including carved woodwork and turn of the century fireplaces. But it also offers modern amenities to make your stay enjoyable.
